Context

Anglès III

Anglès III is a compulsory subject within the area of Foreign Languages Applied to Tourism which, in turn, is one of the three components of the Instrumental Module.

Syllabus

As an instrumental subject, Anglès III (i.e. English for Tourism III), is an essential tool for communicating in international professional settings related to the tourism industry.

The learning of English for Tourism in the Degree of Tourism is organised in four levels of proficiency consisting of 3 compulsory subjects (Anglès I, Anglès II, Anglès III) and an elective one (Anglès IV).

Anglès III will deal with the language needed to discuss and work with tourism issues at mid-management level. The materials used throughout the course have been designed at Level B2+ of the Common European Framework for Languages. The course covers the following topics: Being a manager in the tourism industry (pros and cons, skills, duties, tips for future professional life); the language of meetings and negotiations; promotion at trade fairs, National Tourism Organisations, quality (quality standards and quality assurance techniques: dealing with complaints); human resources management (job-hunting and job interviews in the tourism sector).

Syllabus

Teaching methodology

In-class work activities (2.4 credits, 60 hours)

Modality	Name	Typ. Grp.	Description	Hours
Theory classes		Large group (G)	The course methodological approach integrates theory and practice of the language. Theory contents will cover the linguistic, sociolinguistic and pragmatic skills required to interact with the customer in tourism related communicative settings. Theory modules will, therefore, look at the grammar, specific vocabulary and text type features, reading and writing techniques, principles of pronunciation, cross-cultural issues and pragmatic knowledge. Specific vocabulary will be elicited from texts and materials used in class. Concerning English language usage, students will be provided with supplementary materials both for further training and remedial purposes. Writing techniques will be mainly taught in a deductive way i.e. students will be provided with the theory input needed to carry out the corresponding practical writing activities.	22
Practical classes		Medium group 2 (X)	The linguistic, sociolinguistic and pragmatic knowledge acquired through the theory modules will be put into practice throughout a series of assessable simulations. All the activities will be related to tourism specific professional settings at a mid-management stage in which students will get familiar with the language and strategies of meetings and negotiations, human resources management, and quality assurance techniques.	24
ECTS tutorials	Group tutorials	Small group (P)	Group tutorials are advisory sessions where students will be encouraged to report on their progress related both to the learning of theory and the acquisition of practical skills.	10
Assessment	Oral exam	Small group (P)	Students oral competence will be tested through a series of simulations. Simulation 1 (Meetings) will be performed in groups of 4-6 students and each student's performance will be assessed individually. Simulation 2 (Job Interview) will be performed individually before the examiner. Students missing any of the exams mentioned above will be allowed to re-sit them provided the reasons for their absence comply with the criteria established by the Facultat de Turisme.	2
Assessment	Written exam	Medium group 2 (X)	A written exam will assess the students' achievement of the course objectives regarding their reading, listening, and writing skills together with their knowledge of specific vocabulary. Students missing any of the exams mentioned above will be allowed to re-sit them provided the reasons for their absence comply with the criteria established by the Facultat de Turisme.	2

Syllabus

At the beginning of the semester a schedule of the subject will be made available to students through the UIBdigital platform. The schedule shall at least include the dates when the continuing assessment tests will be conducted and the hand-in dates for the assignments. In addition, the lecturer shall inform students as to whether the subject work plan will be carried out through the schedule or through another way included in the Aula Digital platform.

Distance education tasks (3.6 credits, 90 hours)

Modality	Name	Description	Hours
Individual self-study	Language skills learning tasks	Working with supplementary material to reinforce the acquisition of the techniques and language skills needed to perform successfully in practical activities.	45
Group self-study	Preparatory work for simulations	Students will be given input both on language items and specific content knowledge so that they can rehearse a specific role to be played at the scheduled simulation sessions. Students will be asked to write the necessary documents for preparing simulated meetings.	45

Specific risks and protective measures

The learning activities of this course do not entail specific health or safety risks for the students and therefore no special protective measures are needed.

Student learning assessment

Grading criteria:

- 1) Students need to pass both the written exam and the oral exams.

Frau en elements d'avaluació
